

Clinical Experiences

Presented by: Briana Baldovinos

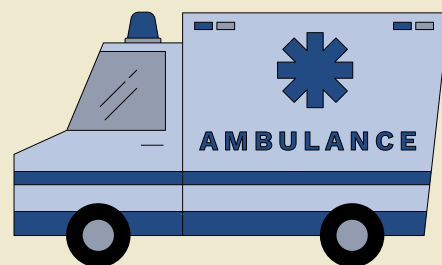

Topic Outline

SCRIBE

MEDICAL ASSISTANT

EMERGENCY
MEDICAL TECHNICIAN

PHLEBOTOMIST

What does "Clinical Experience" mean?

- Clinical experience can be paid or unpaid medical opportunities
- Clinical experiences HAVE to involve having some type of direct patient interaction

Scribe

What they do:

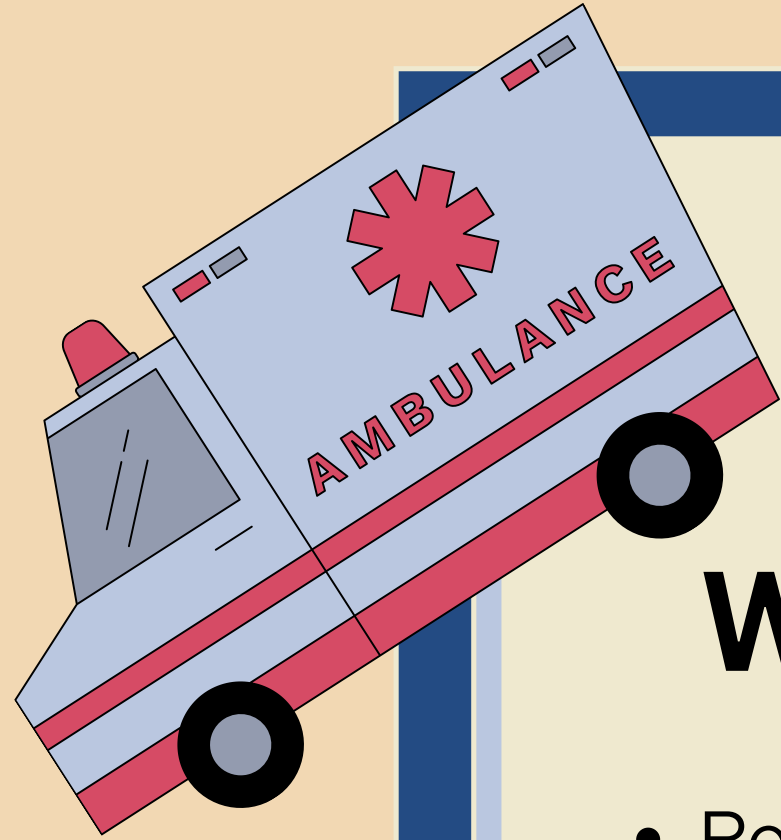

- Type charts for their assigned Physician.
- Accompany physician upon patient interview and examination.
- Document History of Present Illness, Review of Systems, Past medical and Surgical History, Any Medications or Allergies.
- Document correct time patient was seen and their onset of current symptoms/complaints.

Where to apply:

- Indeed
- ScribeAmerica
- Vituity
- ScribeConnect
- Ziprecruiter
- ProScribe
- Scribes4Hire

Prerequisites:

- High School Diploma
- 50-80 wpm (typing speed)

EMT

What they do:

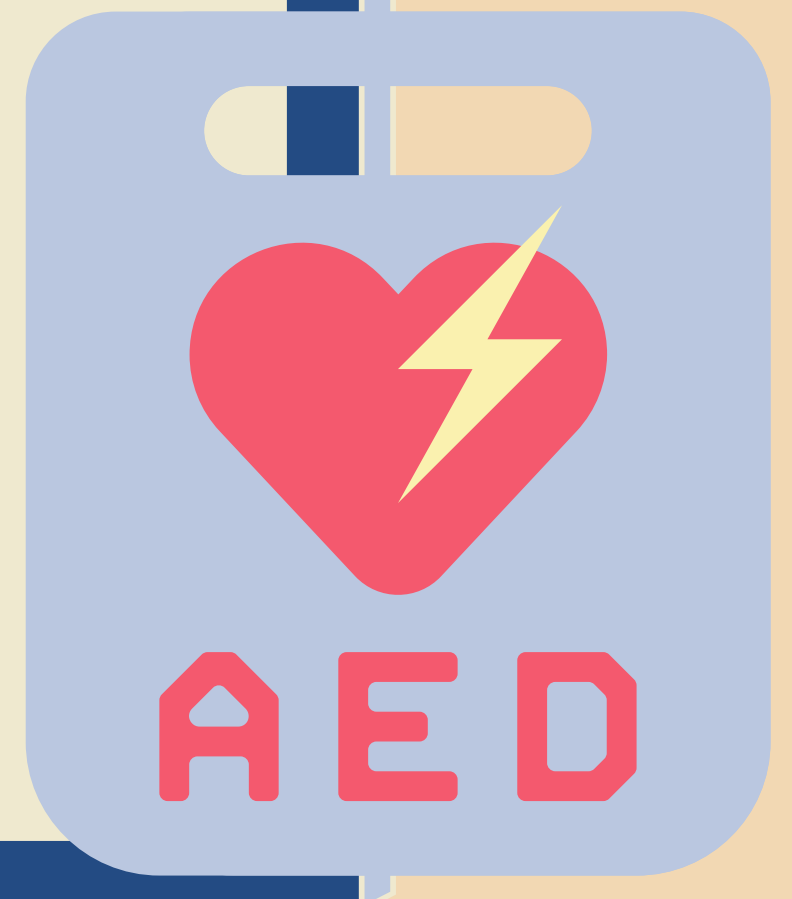

- Responds to emergency situations by stabilizing patients before taking them to a medical care facility.
- Transport patients to the hospital.
- Drive Emergency Vehicles safely and responsibly.
- Responding to dispatchers.

Where to apply:

- West Coast EMT
- HealthPro EMS Training
- SoCal EMT

Prerequisites:

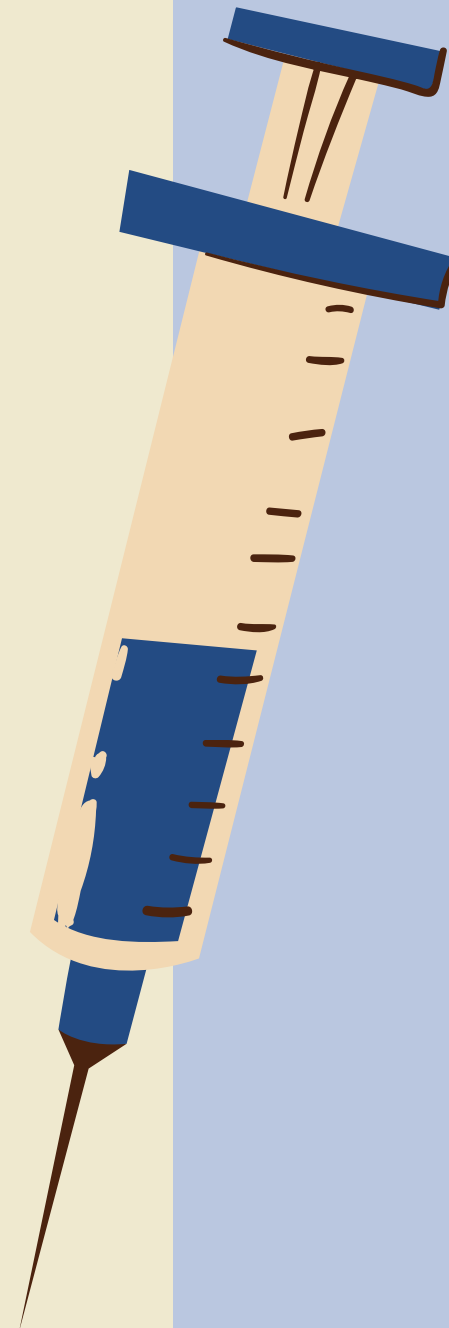

- High School Diploma
- CPR certified

Medical Assistant

What they do:

- Prepare treatment rooms for patient examinations.
- Arrange instruments and equipment used in treatment and diagnosis.
- Check office and lab supplies.
- Keep all rooms tidy and clean.
- Take medical histories.
- Explaining treatment procedures to patients.

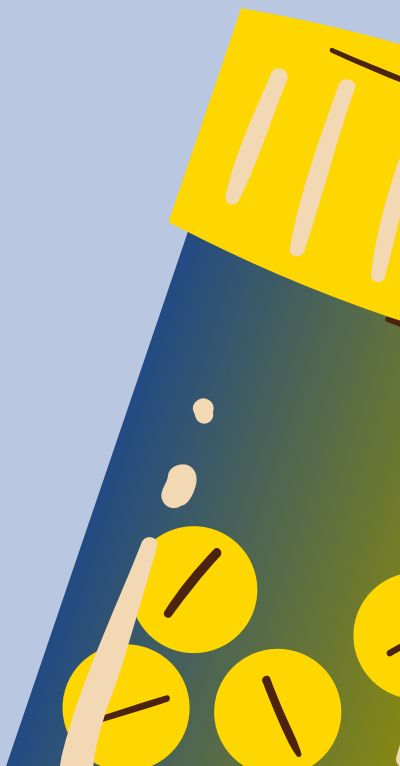

Where to apply:

- Any accredited program (4-6 months)- Some employers don't require certification
- Pass Certification Exam
- Online classes/programs are available, it is dependent on your schedule and which one you would rather take!

Prerequisites:

- High Schol Diploma

Phlebotomist

What they do:

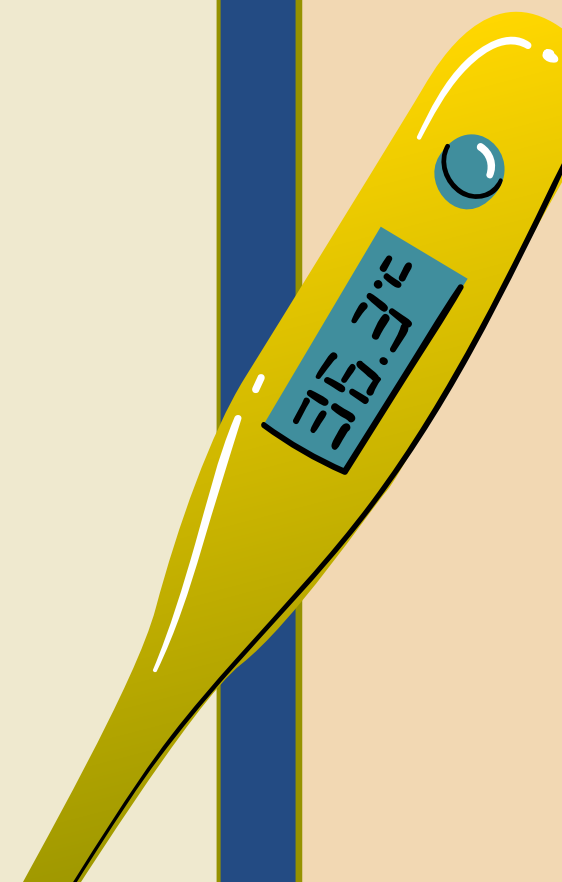

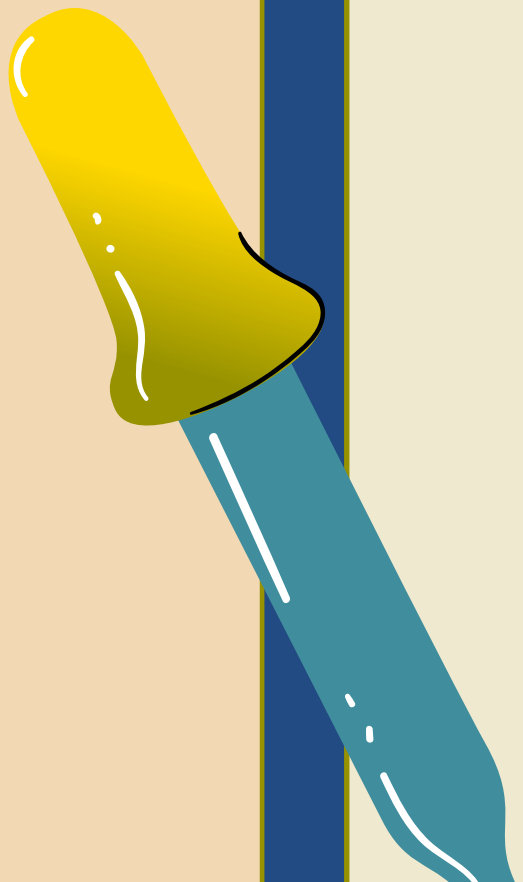

- Taking samples of blood from patients.
- Diagnostic testing.
- Blood bank.
- Blood transfusions.

Where to apply:

- American Career College
- Other online Colleges that vary on your time commitment and schedule

Prerequisites:

- High School Diploma

Thank you for listening!

Don't hesitate to ask any questions!

